Advantage
transform the way you work

Why do I need an ERP system?

Enterprise resource planning (ERP) refers to a type of software that enables you to manage accounting, commercials, operations, sales, purchasing, supply chain and customer service functions from within one solution. This is where our QuickStart Business Central ERP package could help to get you up & running quickly.

Who has an ERP?

88% of businesses consider their ERP implementation helped them to succeed.

More than 80% of ERPs are in SAAS (in the cloud).

65% of small businesses are taking advantage of ERP consultation services.

18% of businesses have no ERP.
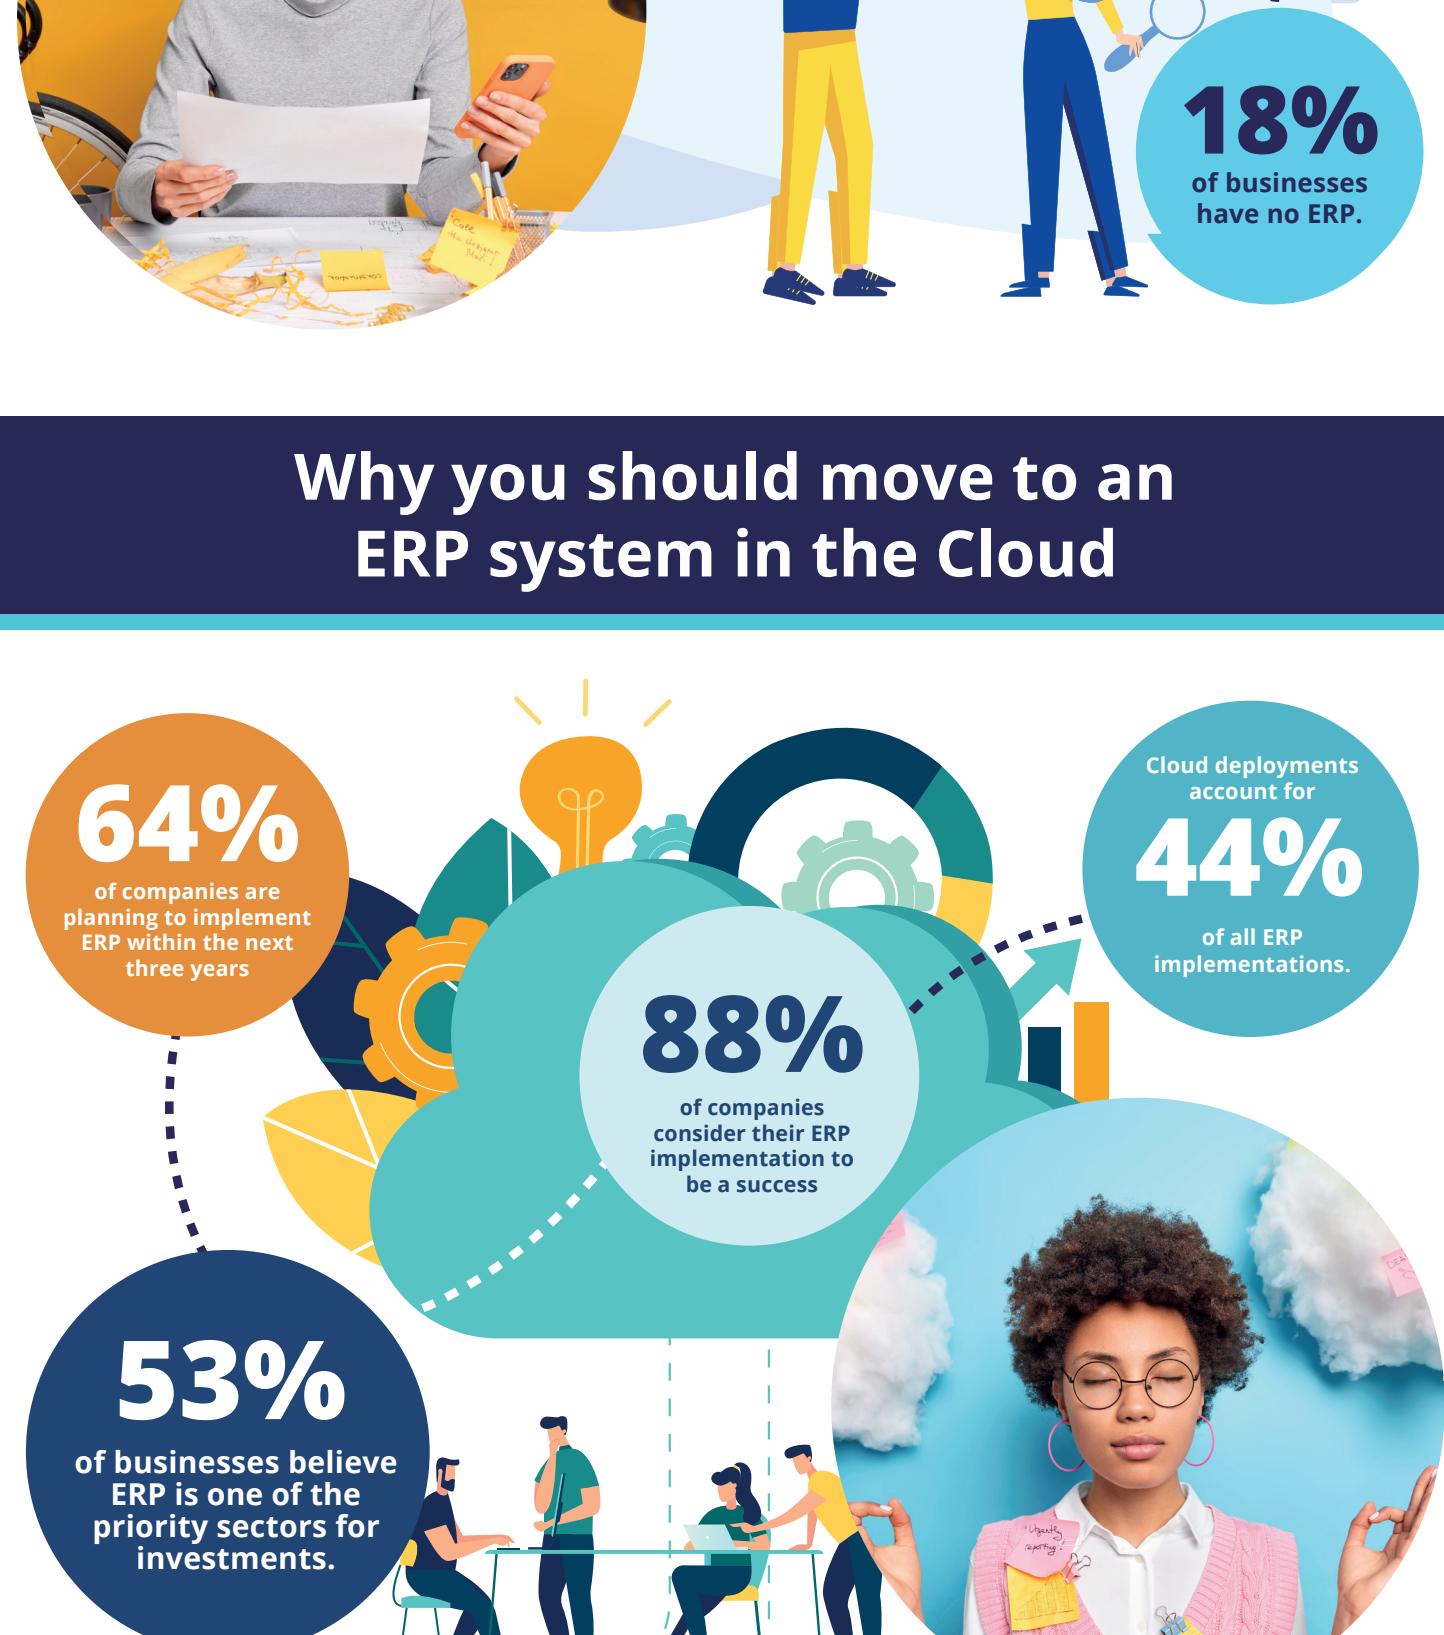

Why you should move to an ERP system in the Cloud

64% of companies are planning to implement ERP within the next three years

Cloud deployments account for 44% of all ERP implementations.

88% of companies consider their ERP implementation to be a success

53% of businesses believe ERP is one of the priority sectors for investments.

How can your business benefit from a new ERP system?

Become more cost effective through an ERP system

Using ERP software on average reduces operational costs by 23%

29% say that ERP is the "primary" enabler to bridge business and functional silos'.

Using ERP software on average reduces administrative costs by 22%

11% reduction in inventory when using an ERP.
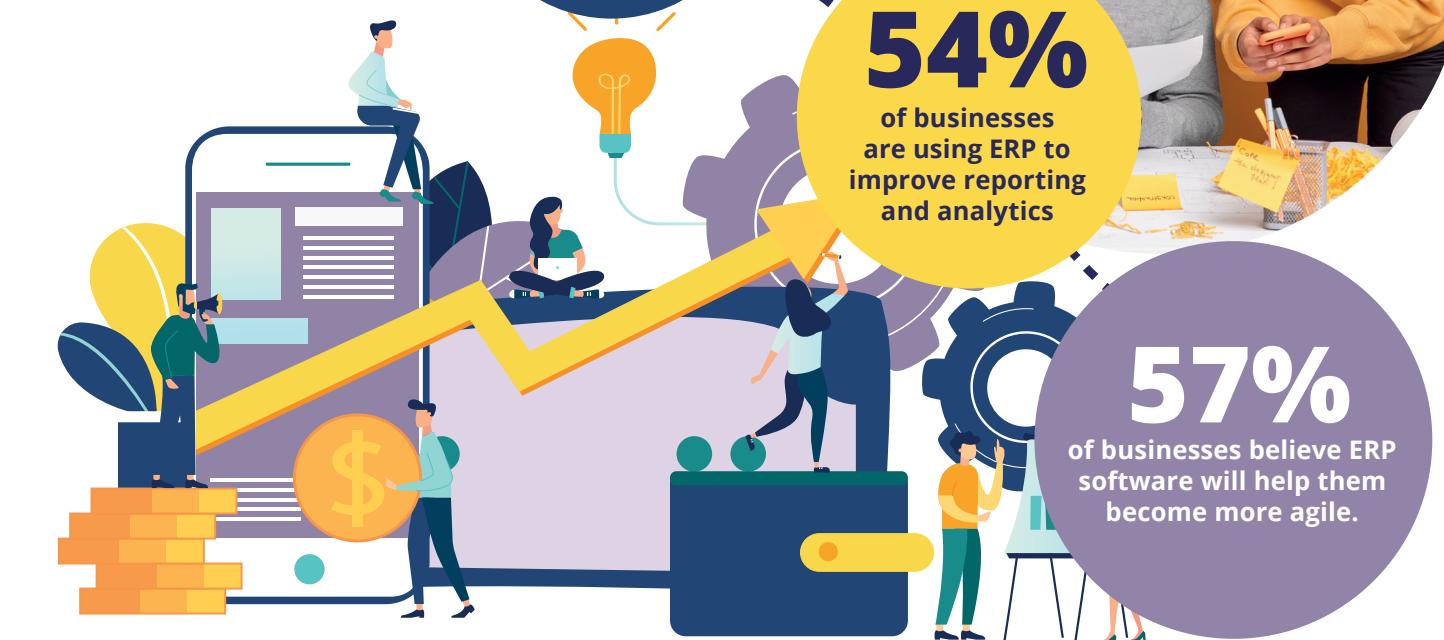

Improve efficiency & productivity with an ERP system

Around 28% of companies reported positive ROI within a year of ERP software use

ERP implementation led to business process improvement for 95% of businesses

54% of businesses are using ERP to improve reporting and analytics

57% of businesses believe ERP software will help them become more agile.
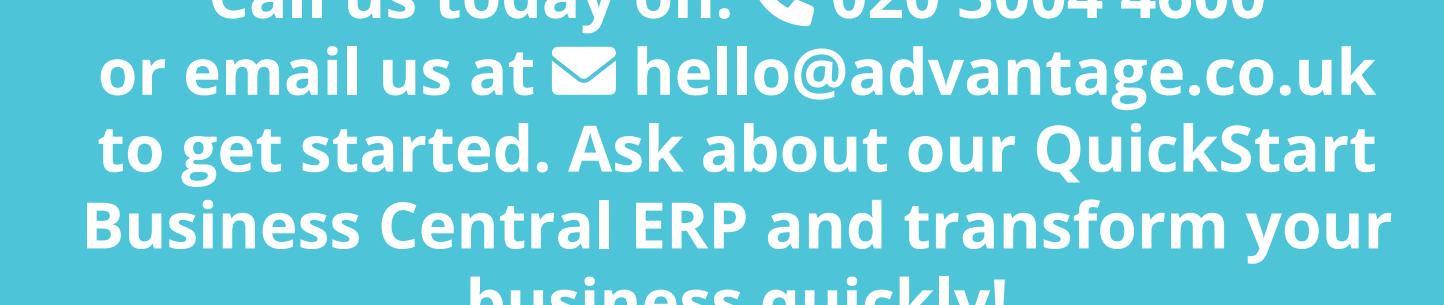

Call us today on: ☎ 020 3004 4600 or email us at ✉ hello@advantage.co.uk to get started. Ask about our QuickStart Business Central ERP and transform your business quickly!